Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Robert Gamson on August 28, 2008.

The application has been amended as follows:

In the specification:

An abstract on a separate sheet has been inserted (see the attached abstract).

In claim 1:

in line 1, ", of the type" has been deleted;

in line 2, before "mixer", "a" has been changed to --an audio--; and in line 7, "an upper space (7)" has been changed to --a lower space (10)--.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

None of prior art teaches an electro-acoustic equipment which comprises a loudspeaker for the reproduction of low frequencies, two satellites, an audio mixer and a power unit, and is composed of a main case, a panel with an upper wing being inwardly folded, a removable cover hinged to the lateral borders of the space for the audio mixer, a pair of wheels, and an electrical cable housed in the front space of the main case, as specifically claimed in claim 1, wherein the main case has a front space having the same height as the case, which partially houses the loudspeaker and closed by a cover, a grid hiding an opening of the speaker, and the back of the main case has a lower space to contain a power unit with heat dissipater and a pair of identical intermediate spaces that exactly house the two satellites, wherein the panel is mounted on the back of the main case to close the two spaces for the satellites and embrace the rear section of the upper space or the upper housing for the audio mixer, the removable cover is capable of oscillating from the horizontal stop position to a vertical stop position, and the pair of wheels are fixed inside the two small vertical housings with pins with horizontal axis, which are located on the bottom and back of the main case and in lateral position with respect to the space for the power unit, and wherein the electrical cable is used to make electrical connection between the audio mixer and the power unit.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Rashak (U.S. patent 4,843,624) teaches a portable enclosure system for audio equipment.
